

Exciting Job Opportunity

Role

We are looking for enthusiastic students to become part of the future of Glatfelter. The Glatfelter Lydney Papermaking Apprenticeship Program is run at our paper school in Gernsbach, Germany, and will be taught in English. Following each module, apprentices will return to the Lydney facility to put their knowledge and skills learned into practice in an operational environment.

Details

- Each year, apprentices will spend approximately 7 weeks at the school. After 3 years, apprentices will graduate as a Craftsperson.
- Applicants should possess or have predicted grades of 5 GCSEs at grade C or above to include Maths, English and a Science/technical-based subject.
- The closing date is 31st May 2017 after which an assessment day will be held.
- If you would like to know more, please email Lydney-hr@glatfelter.com.
